

Lewis & Lewis, Inc.
Cameo Club
DCG Case 07-00029-01

Violation: Business and Professions Code sections:

19850. State Gambling License, Key Employee License, or Work Permit;
Requirements; Violation; Punishment

19875. Owner's Gambling License; Posting

19855. License Required Prior to Activity; Period to File Application

19922. Gambling Enterprise Operation in Violation of Chapter Provisions or Regulations

Summary: Respondent failed to obtain approval from the California Gambling Control Commission to relocate their gambling business to another location. For approximately 45 days the respondent operated the gambling business without a valid gambling license and failed to post a valid license with a correct address in a conspicuous place.

Decision: Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order:
Effective October 23, 2008, respondent is ordered to pay a fine in the amount of $40,000.00 to the Bureau of Gambling Control. Half of the fine ($20,000.00) is immediately due. The remaining half of the fine ($20,000.00) will be waived if the respondent complies with the Disciplinary Order and has no additional or similar violations for 12 months or until Cameo Club is sold and transferred to a new owner, whichever is sooner.
